Northern News.

RICHMOND, Feb. 19.

The New York Herald of the 16th says: The Illinois Legislature passed strong revolutionary resolutions, chiefly made up of violent denunciations of President Lincoln's Administration, and of provisions for an armistice and a peace convention to be held at Louisville, Ky. Similiar resolutions are pending in the Indiana Legislature.

President Davis' message excited much attention in England. The Post, (Palmerston's organ,) commends its ability and acknowledges the right of secession and promises recognition of the South at a future day.

The Washington correspondent of the Herald says that prominent Republicans have been heard to announce themselves in favor of peace upon any terms. Expressions of such sentiments caused quite a commotion among politicians in Washington.

The report of the Committee on Territories shows that the Mormons are openly inimical to the Government of the United States.

The Indian Bureau has received information that the Sioux and Pawnees have made a treaty of peace with the Government.

The Polish insurrection has been suppressed.

News received from Mexico indicates that the French are making but little progress.

Capture of the Federal Vessel Queen of the West.

MOBILE, Feb. 19.

PORT HUDSON, Feb. 17.—Capt. Cannon from Red river, brings information of the capture of the Federal steamer Queen of the West at Gordon's Landing, Fort Taylor, on Red river,

The Queen of the West captured the Confederate steamer Era, number five, and forced her pilot, John Burke, to take the wheel, and ordered him to take the gunboat to our batteries. Burke feigned fear, but finally took the wheel under a Yankee guard. Upon nearing our batteries he told the Yankees they were fifteen miles below them, immediately putting close in, when she received a shot which broke her steam pipe, and disabling the boat, the Yankees being perfectly unprepared for fight, and suspecting no danger. Burke jumped overboard and swam ashore. The boat drifted to the opposite shore when her crew made their escape, with the exception of eighteen, who fell into our hands. The crew subsequently got aboard of the Yankee boat De Soto, with two hundred stolen negroes and effected their escape.

The Queen of the West is now in possession of the Confederates, and will be towed to a place of safety for repairs.

It is reported that the Yankee gunboat Indianola has gone up Red river to recapture her.

The conduct of Burke has elicited the highest enconiums.

Later intelligence states that the Confederate steamer Webb closely pursued and captured the Era.

The Era is disabled in one wheel. The Queen of the West is but slightly injured, and will soon be in fighting trim, under Confederate colors.

Positive information states that the transport De Soto was burnt by the Federals to prevent her falling into the hands of the Confederates.

PORT HUDSON, Feb. 18.—The Alexandria Democrat in an extra received here, contains the official report of the capture of the Queen of the West, of J. Kelze, commanding the fortifications on Red river.—He says that two gunboats made their appearance in front of this position at five o'clock last evening, and after a brief cannonade, the leading gunboat, Queen of the West, struck her colors, and I immediately ordered Capt. Hulton, of the Crescent Artillery and Lieut. De La Huntley, to go aboard and demand her surrender. These officers report but thirteen officers and crew on board. The others escaped under cover of the night. The visible results of the capture consists in one 32-pounder rifle parrot gun, one 24 pounder, three 12-pounders, one 12-pounder, (slightly damaged,) besides a large supply of ordnance stores, a large stock of quinine, with five cases of amputating instruments, and of denial instruments, clothing, flour, bacon, beef, pork, hard bread, and other stores in proportion.

The Democrat says "the victory is complete, grand and decided, and we are ready to capture all such crafts as Vicksburg allows to pass."

Arrival of a French Steamer.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 19.

The French war steamer Milan arrived here to day, and now lies anchored with the British steamer Petrel within the harbor.

Confederate Congress.

RICHMOND, Feb. 19.

SENATE.—In the Senate to-day the House resolutions of thanks to Gen. Magruder, the officers and men of his command, for their achievements at Galveston was unanimously concurred in. The House bill for refunding to Alabama the amount of the war tax overpaid by her was passed. The exemption bill was further considered.—Mr. Henry's substitute to the second section of the bill was agreed to. It exempts one person on each farm or plantation, sole proprietor, a minor, persons of unsound mind, feme sole, persons absent from home in military or naval service of the Confederacy, on which there are twenty or more slaves, etc. Pending the further consideration of the bill, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the bill to prevent fraud in the Quartermaster's and Commissary Departments. The consideration of the currency question was resumed in secret session.

Movements of the Yankee Army.

RICHMOND, Feb. 19.

It has been ascertained that twenty-five or thirty thousand Yankee troops have been sent from the army of the Potomac to Suffolk and Newport News. Burnside's old division occupies the latter place.—Cabins, ovens and other evidences of a protracted encampment have been erected. Five steam transports are, however, kept in readiness in Hampton Roads.

The Affair off Sabine.

The Houston Telegraph of January 26, gives the following account of this exploit:

Major Watkins, some weeks since, organized an expedition, by order of Major General Magruder, having for its object the clearing Sabine Bay of the enemy and their capture.

To effect this object the two little steamers Josiah Bell and Uncle Ben were placed under his command, with about 300 men drawn from Pyron's, Speight's and Cook's regiments.

The Bell was armed with a 64 pounder rifle cannon, and the Uncle Ben with two 18's

The enemy learning, no doubt, that the expedition was fitting out in Sabine river, and warned by our success at Galveston, left the Pass and took position in the Gulf twelve miles distant.

The expedition got under way on the 20th and ran down to the Pass. On the morning of the 21st the steamers got up steam and started for the bar. They discovered at about twelve miles distance, two vessels, which proved to be the brig of war Morning Light, mounting eight 32 pounders and one rifle-gun, and a schooner, the name of which our informant does not remember, mounting two splendid Dahlgrens.

The Morning Light is the same vessel that destroyed Winston's salt works. Her men, it will be remembered, were thoroughly punished in that affair.

The moment the vessels discovered them they up sail and ran to sea to escape our steamers. All steam was at once put on, and an exciting chase commenced.

At about 10 o'clock, the chase having continued about fifteen miles, the Bell got in range and the Davis Guards let fly their first gun at the Morning Light. The chase continued for some miles further, giving our boys time to fire some ten or twelve shots, several of which took effect in the brig.

The brig answered, but was unable to hit the Bell at all. Having now approached to within good musket ranke, it did not take long for the riflemen to clear the enemy's deck. Before the Bell reached her, her colors were hauled down, and our boys took undisputed possession.

It did not require long to take the schooner.

The following is Major Watkins' official report:

SABINE PASS, TEXAS,
On board the C, S, Gunboat Bell,
January 21, 1863.

Captain: We met the enemy this morning in the Gulf of Mexico, We whipped them, and brought everything to Sabine pass. I fought them—ten guns to our one!

My officers and men beaved nobly. We have captured two vessels—one of them a full rigged ship, and the other a schooner—twelve fine guns, medical stores and ammunition in abundance, together with one hundred and nine prisoners.

* * * * *

Very respectfully,
OSCAR M. WATKINS,
Major and A. A. General,
Com'dg on the Sabine.

To Edmund P. Turner, Captain and A. A. G.

The News publishes the following letter giving some interesting particulars of the battle:

ON BOARD THE STEAMER J. H. BELL,
January, 21, 1863.

Editor News: At sunrise this morning, the J. H. Bell and Uncle Ben left Sabine Pass. When near the bay, off the bar, a ship and a schooner hove in full view. When we had approached within five and a half miles, and at 8½ o'clock A. M., the Bell opened fire with a 32-pound rifled gun, called the "Magruder." Our shot fell short and we ceased firing. At 8½ A. M., the enemy's ship, Morning Light, opened fire on the Bell with round shot, shell and grape; but all fell short. At the same time the Bell stopped for the Uncle Ben to come up. At 9:35 A. M. the Ben came up, and both boats moved on to the attack. At this time the Yankee shot and shell were flying think and fast around the Bell. At 9 A. M. the Yankee commander, finding our boats were closing on him, changed his position, and paid his compliments to the Uncle Ben, in a discharge of his guns at her.

At this time, Lieut. R. W. Dowling, of the 1st Texas Artillery, Cook's regiment, was doing good work with the "Magruder;" and, mean time, the "horse marings" were pouring volley after volley into the helpless crew of the ship. About the same time, the schooner doged, coming from the lee of the ship, and fired one shot at the Bell, which did not take effect. At 9:10 the Yankee ship struck her colors to the Bell; and, simultaneously, the schooner struck hers to the Uncle Ben.

After the sails were furled and the ship was in tow of the Bell, and the schooner of the Uncle Ben, I made examination of the ships condition. Her hull had been struck by a 32-pound ball—killing one man and wounding five others. We have now brought the prizes all safe to the bar, and are ready for another fight.

Yours,
ZACK JABEL.

P. S.—The names of the vessels captured are the Morning Light and the Velocity—the former 1500 tons and the latter 75 or 80 tons. The ship is armed with two 12 pound brass howitzers. The schooner will make a good gunboat, but the ship is of too heavy draught for our use.

By the Governor of North Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it has been made to appear to me that the terms of the Proclamation issued by me on the 26th ultimo, for the benefit of those members of our army who are absent from their colors without proper leave, may not have been known to all who might have desired to avail themselves of its merciful provisions in time for them to do so.

Now therefore I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this second Proclamation, extending the time limited in the former to the 5th day of March next. All such persons as above referred to, who shall have reported to their several camps by that day, will suffer no punishment for their past delinquintes. To those who shall not have so reported, nothing can be promised except the severest penalties of the military law.

{L. S.} In witness whereof, I, Zebulon B. Vance, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, have signed these presents and caused the great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this 12th day of February, A. D., 1863, and in 87th year of our Independence.

By order of the Governor,
Z. B. VANCE.

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

CHARLOTTE, NOV'R. 1, 1862.

[COMMUNICATED.]

At a meeting of the Grubbs Huzzars, Co. B., (now camped at Charlotte, N. C.) Lieut. Alexander, presiding, Messrs. Duke, Burton and Jones being appointed a committee to report resolutions of thanks and acknowledgement to certain individuals of this vicinity for acts of liberal kindness shown the company since its arrival here, reported the following which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our profoundest thanks are due and hereby tendered to Mr Kirkpatrick for a nice pig and one bushel of excellent corn meal; also to Mr. Richard Rozzle for one quarter of firstrate dried beef.

Resolved, That we will fondly cherish the memory of our friend Mr J. M. Hall, of Burke county, Ga., who called to see us as he passed en route to his friends in Virginia, and gave us ten dollars for a dinner.

Resolved, That a copy of the above be sent to the Charlotte Bulletin with the request that it be published.

An Abolitionist for Peace.

A few days since Senator Conway, of Kansas, one of the most ultra, as well as one of the ablest of the Republican members of Congress, made a strong speech in favor of peace and the stopping of the war. The speech is said to have the approval of General Andrew, Charles Sumner, W. Phillips, Horace Greely and other leading Abolitionists who held a caucus in Washington just before it was delivered. It is a very important and significant demonstration.

Mr Conway in his speech announced himself as opposed to reunion. He says:

"I am not in favor of restoring the constitutional relation of the slaveholders to the Union, nor of the war to that end. I have never allowed myself to indulge in that superstitious idolatry of the Union so prevalent among simple, but honest people, nor the political cant about the Union so prevalent among the dishonest ones.

That the South has established its independence he boldly declared, saying:

"This war between the North and the South for the past two years has made a revolution. It has substituted in the South another Government for the Union. This is the fact, and the fact in such a matter is the important thing. No technicality in a matter of this kind can stand. The war has utterly dissolved the connection between the North and the South, and renders them separate and independent powers in the world."

Mr. Conway concludes by announcing that the true policy of the North is to terminate the war at once, and he urges both houses of Congress to adopt the following resolutions:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives, That the Executive be, and he is hereby, requested to issue a general order to all commanders of forces in the several military departments of the United States to discontinue offensive operations against the enemy, and to act for the future entirely on the defensive.

Resolved, That the Executive be, and he is, further requested to enter into negotiations with the authorities of the Confederate States with reference to a cessation of hostilities, based on the following propositions:

1. Recognition of the independence of the Confederate States. 2. A uniform system of duties upon imports. 3. Free trade between the two States. 4. Free navigation of the Mississippi river. 5. Mutual adoption of the Monroe doctrine.

THE ALABAMA ON A NEW CRUISE.—An officer of the navy informs us that, from certain information in his possession, he is enabled to state, somewhat reliably, that the steamer Alabama, has gone or will soon go, to the eastern hemisphere, Semmes' orders, according to the officer referred to, were "to do as he pleased;" but the bold privateer recently determined, it is said, to leave the western hemisphere when all our fastest cruisers would be concentrated to chase him, and go to the North Atlantic or Indian Ocean. It was a great object of his to draw the Tuscarora and Kearsage from Europe, for the purpose of diminishing sentinels watching blockade runners and other privateers fitting out in British ports. Semmes is known to have contemplated a cruise on the coast of Africa and South Asia, and a certain person suspected of being in his confidence, recently stated that "If the waters bounding America were covered with Yankee men-of-war on the first of February, Captain Semmes might defy them all." Another theory in the same direction is the fact that coals for the Alabama were engaged in advance in the neighborhood of Madagascar.—New York World.

LAND PRIVATEERING.—In the Confederate House of Representatives, on Friday, on motion of Mr McDowell, of North Carolina, it was referred to the Committee on Judiciary, to inquire into the expediency of reporting a bill providing for the sale of all negroes taken in arms against the Confederate States, the proceeds to be divided among the troops engaged in their capture.

THE EXPECTED ATTACK.—Another page, full of interest, and of glory too, we trust, is soon to be added to the history of the war. The enemy is gathering vast fleets and armies upon our coast, and all the indications warrant the belief that, ere many days, they will be hurled against our city. We print to-day the Proclamation of our General, warning the non combatants that it is time for them to retire, and calling upon our fighting men, from the mountains to the seaboard, to rally to the defence of Charleston.

We have serious work before us. The enemy's assault, so long ... ed, will, for that reason, be the more formidable.—Every agency that human power and ingenuity, urged on by de... hate, can command, will be used to capture or destroy the "hot-bed of the rebellion." The blow that is about to fall ... be the last we shall receive in the struggle for our independence, but it will be dealt with all the strength of despair. ... foe comes with the avowed purpose to ... our homes and plough our streets with ... round shot; and, should his power ... equal to his malice, that will be no empty threat."

A French View of the Charleston Blockade.

The question whether or not the Charleston blockade has been raised continues to excite comment. The French Courier, published in New York, which constantly foreshadows French ideas, reviews the facts and remarks:

The code of public right is timely and conclusive upon this point, that the moment the blockade of a port has been interrupted through the even momentary dispersion of the blockading squadron by a superior force, the victorious party has the right to proclaim the raising of the blockade, and the re-opening of the place thus made free to the commerce of the world. From the moment that such declaration has been made, officially, foreign ports which receive such intelligence recover the right to forward their ships to the port the blockade of which has been represented as raised; and even if these ships reach there after the blockade has been reestablished, they cannot be seized nor confiscated, as they had left their respective ports for one which, at the moment of their departure, had been declared free. To stop the effects of this privilege, it is not only necessary that the blockading fleet reappears before the port from which it has been previously chased away, but a formal declaration of a new blockade is ordered, at the first blockade ceases to exist the every moment it has ... [illegible]

In other words, or rather, to make the general doctrine apply to the case before us: Suppose that the proclamation of Beauregard and Ingraham, with the news of their victory, reaches Nassau the 5th of this month, the ships which are there awaiting a chance to reach a Southern port can immediately go to sea and try the experiment; without running any other risk on arriving before Charleston, than to ascertain that the blockade has been reestablished. Seizure nor confiscation awaits them, when they can establish before an Admiralty Court the fact that they have undertaken their voyage upon the strength of the Beauregard and Ingraham proclamation. And this state of things will last until the Washington Government has made a new announcement of the reestablishment of the blockade.

The Kentucky Resolutions.

The famous resolves of the Kentucky Legislature, of which we have had so much by telegraph, are at last presented in a readable form and may be scanned and appreciated. They are preceded by a long preamble, similar in form and substance to the indictment against George III. in the Declaration of Independence, reciting the many outrages upon the people of Kentucky and the numerous infractions of the Constitution which have been perpetrated by the Lincoln Administration

1. Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That Kentucky will, by all Constitutional means in her power, protect her citizens in the employment of the elective franchise; the benefits of the writ habeas corpus; the security of their persons and property against the unconstitutional edict of the Federal Executive, and their enforcement by the army under its control.

2. That by the Constitution of the State of Kentucky, "the right of the owner of the slave to such slave and its increase is the same, and is inviolable as the right of the owner, to any property whatever;" that Kentucky understands her own interests too well to be thankful for gratuitous advice as to the mode in which she should manage them; and when she wants the assistance of any outside administration of her affairs, she claims the privilege of originating the suggestion;" consequently, the proposition made by Abraham Lincoln, for her to emancipate her slaves are hereby rejected.

3. That the object and purpose of the war having been perverted by the party now in control of the government, in violation of its oft repeated and most solemn pledges, our Senators in Congress are instructed, and our Representatives are requested to oppose any further aid in its prosecution by furnishing either men or money.

4. That the proclamation of the President, dated September 22d, 1862, and January 1, 1863, purporting to emancipate the slaves in certain States and parts of States, set forth therein, are unwarranted by any code, either civil or military, and of such character and tendency not to be submitted to by a people jealous of their liberties.

5. That the act of Congress, approved by the President, admitting Western Virginia as a State, without the consent of the State of Virginia, is such a palpable violation of the Constitution as to warrant Kentucky in refusing to recognize the validity of such proceeding.

6. That Kentucky will cordially unite with the Democracy of the Northern States in an earnest endeavor to bring about a speedy termination of the existing war, and to this end we insist upon a suspension of hostilities and an armistice to enable the belligerents to agree upon terms of peace.

7. That commissioners from this State be appointed, whose duty it shall be to visit the Federal and Confederate Governments at Richmond and Washington, and urge them respectively to agree upon an armistice for the purposes herein contemplated.

8. That the Governor of Kentucky is hereby requested to forward a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the President of the United States, and to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

COOL.—The "New South," the Yankee paper published at Hilton Head, contains, among other villianies, an advertisement of six columns of land sales "for unpaid direct taxes in insurrectionary districts," which states that the lands there offered have been forfeited to the United States.—Several hundred tracts of land on St. Helens Island, Lady's Island, and Port Royal Island, are enumerated. The notice is signed A. D. Smith, W. E. Wording, and Wm. Henry Brisbane, Direct Tax Commissioners.—Charleston Mercury.

I have been selling at old prices, being desirous of working off the stock. I shall have at least (50,000) fifty thousand trees for sale, and all persons wishing trees would do well to attend the sale, as I intend hereafter to sell all kinds at from 25 to 100 per cent. higher than heretofore. This conclusion was not been arrived at from the high price every thing is now selling at, but from the fact that no one can carry on the Nursery business at our old prices without losing money. I will have the trees raised, counted in bunches of 100, and ready for delivery on the day of sale.

APPEAL TO THE CHARITABLE.

The funds for the support of the Charlotte Wayside Hospital are exhausted. The Institution has been sustained during the past year under the supervision of the Board of Commissioners of the Town by donations from our citizens. During this time many sick and wounded soldiers have been taken care of and it is the desire of the Board still to offer aid to our suffering soldiers if our community will aid.

Contributions for the Hospital will be received at the Branch Bank.

TERMS:—Seventy-five dollars required in advance; the balance at the end of the session. No deduction for absence unless in cases of serious illness.

The Town of Lincolnton has long been proverbial for its healthiness. It has daily Railroad communication with Charlotte, from which it is only two hours distant. For the benefit of pupils from sickly sections our long vacation is in the winter.

Besides the necessary public rooms, the building furnishes accommodations for about sixty boarding pupils.

We pay very especial attention to the elementary branches of education. Every pupil of the School, however far advanced, is required to take Arithmetic, Spelling, Grammar, and Composition, as regular studies.

The fact that we have semiannual classes enables us to enforce a higher standard of scholarship than is usual in the best institutions conducted on the ordinary annual plan.

We send home at the middle and the end of each session a department, scholarship, and punctuality of each pupil.

The School is a private enterprise, being in no wise under the patronage or influence of any sect or denomination. Each pupil is allowed to attend Sunday School in her own church.
